Frank Carr, arrested on the charge of bastardy, with Mrs. McGuire, living southeast of town as the complaining witness, had a hearing in Justice Sullivan's court Wednesday and the case continued.

Mrs. Nettie Harrington, who has been visiting North Platte friends, will leave Sunday for her home in Stockton, Cal. Mrs. Harrington lived in North Platte prior to 1900.

Miss Opal Deering, of Grand Island, will be married next week to Dr. Wm. F. Dugan, of that city. Miss Deering is well known here, having frequently visited her sister Mrs. Thomas Green.

Mrs. W. F. Leon entertained twelve ladies yesterday afternoon in favor of her mother, Mrs. Taylor, of Council Bluffs, who leaves for home today after visiting her daughter for a month.

The first number of the Lyceum course will be given at the Keith theatre this evening, the attraction being the Fisher Shipp Concert Co. The company is said to be a most excellent one.

The county commissioners will meet in session next Tuesday and further consider the application for the formation of the Platte Valley irrigation district. The state engineers went over the proposed district and the petition is now ready for final action.

At the annual meeting of the directors of the St. Joseph & Grand Island road, Ernest Stenger was re-elected general manager. Mr. Stenger was formerly stationed at North Platte as assistant superintendent of the Union Pacific.

J. A. Munroe of the Union Pacific was promoted from general freight traffic manager to vice president in charge of traffic by the board of directors of the Union Pacific road on Friday. Tuesday afternoon he was promoted to the same position on the Oregon Short Line. Mr. Munroe will have headquarters in Omaha.

John Bailey went to Grand Island Wednesday and the Independent reporter caught him as follows: Big Bill Bailey, as spick and span as a graduate from a law school on fashionable Fifth avenue, was in the city from Kearney yesterday. Big Bill, known as the old North Platte pitcher, has been working for the Overland out of Kearney and has not been in the city for several years.

"I Am Well"

writes Mrs. L. R. Barker, of Bud, Ky., "and can do all my housework. For years I suffered with such pains, I could scarcely stand on my feet. After three different doctors had failed to help me, I gave Cardui a trial. Now, I feel like a new woman."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

A woman's health depends so much upon her delicate organs, that the least trouble there affects her whole system. It is the little things that count, in a woman's life and health. If you suffer from any of the aches and pains, due to womanly weakness, take Cardui at once, and avoid more serious troubles. We urge you to try it. Begin today.

E. W. Mann left today for Cozad on business.

C. O. Weingand returned last night from a business trip to Omaha.

H. Edmund Dickey, proprietor of the moving picture theatres in this city, has rented the former Scout residence at Twenty-fourth and Second avenue, and will move his family here from North Platte his former home.—Kearney Hub.

Fisher Shipp Co.

The first number of the North Platte Lyceum Course will be given in the Keith Theatre Friday evening, Oct. 20 at 8:30. It is an entertainment by the Fisher Shipp Concert Co. Some of our people may have heard these artists in their evening of music and readings and these are enthusiastic in their praises of the work of Miss Shipp and her associates. Fisher Shipp is one of the strongest impersonators and readers on the Lyceum platform. Her work is above the average and that is saying a great deal for the average of professional readers is going up very fast. The Lyceum public are becoming expert in judging of Lyceum work and artists who do not show a high degree of ability are soon down and out. Fisher Shipp will please and season ticket holders should be sure and attend. Single admission tickets to this entertainment are 50 cents for everybody.

Lincoln County Wins Prizes.

At the dry farming congress held at Colorado Springs this week, at which many samples of farm products were displayed, Lincoln county took three premiums. These were: First premium on four varieties of apples, first premium on best three sugar beets and second premium on best display of alfalfa and millet.

Lincoln county was represented at the congress by Harry P. Stevens, who lives south of Maxwell, and while it is not stated, it is believed that the products on which premiums were given were grown by Mr. Stevens, who is one of the county's most progressive farmers.

The Lyceum.

The manager of the Lyceum Course this year has tried a new plan of getting the tickets into the hands of the purchasers. Season tickets were inclosed with a stamped, self addressed envelope and a letter of explanation and mailed to 200 people who had purchased season tickets and a few others who had been patrons of the Chautauqua and who had stood for the higher things in life as exemplified by the platform. The stamped envelope was for the purchaser to return the tickets in case they were not wanted or to forward a check in payment of same. No time was set for the return and not over half of the tickets have been accounted for. They will all be returned or paid for. Season tickets at $1.50 for the course of five numbers are for sale at the Keith Theatre box office and from the principal of the high school or the superintendent. All season tickets will be withdrawn from public sale after the first number is given. Single admission will be 50 cents for each of the following numbers except the four artists which will be 75 cents, and Edward Amherst Ott. You will be supporting a great institution and doing yourself a good turn by enrolling among the Lyceum patrons and securing as many season tickets as you need.

Saturday October 21st.

The little three year old son of John Beverage wandered away from the L. C. Applegate home, Monday morning, and was not found until some time in the afternoon, when it toddled into the Hoeckridge yard. The distance traveled by the child was not less than five miles, but aside from being stiff from walking it was unharmed.—Sutherland Free Lance.

Fred Pierson stated the other day that he had sixteen hundred acres of winter wheat planted and expected to enlarge the acreage to the extent of five hundred acres. Certainly, with a good year, this amount of wheat should produce nearly enough grain to supply Lincoln county with flour for a time.—Sutherland Free Lance.

The Hastings Republican, in a half column article, says that the Burlington's line up the North Platte valley will be completed within the next twelve months. The information, says the Republican, comes from a well known railroad man who can be relied upon.

There will be no services in the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday Oct. 22, owing to the delay in getting the re-furnishing done. We hope to be ready for the re-opening by October 29.

THE PASTOR.
Della M. Earm, of Gothenburg, and William C. Dodd, of Farnam, were married by Judge H. M. Grimes.

North Platte Sunshine Branch No. 1.

A great deal of good cheer work has been done during the year 1911. Our clothing we give to the deserving needy anywhere the call seems to be the greatest. Vegetables, fruit, jelly and preserves passed on to needy ones. Post cards sent, sunny letters written; reading matter passed on, several pairs of shoes, clothes and patchwork pieces passed on, furniture, etc. Flowers sent to the sick and shut-ins, picture books to several sick children. Contributions, Mrs. J. E. Evans, ladies' nice coat, muff, pretty hat; Mrs. Jos. Murphy, several packages of clothing, hat; Mrs. Syl Friend, books, clothing, quilt pieces, and several pieces of furniture. The Star a business house in our city donated about two dozen new caps; Mrs. Miner Hinman, package clothing; Mrs. C. W. Edwards, clothing; Mrs. A. M. Lock, clothing; J. H. Weeks, clothing; E. N. Ogier, clothing; Mrs. Den, Mrs. VanCleave, Mrs. Stamp, magazines; Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Zentmeyer, Mrs. J. K. Ottenstein, Mrs. E. A. Cary, Mrs. Barber, clothing; Mrs. Fred Marti, children's books, shoes, clothes; Mrs. Dr. McCabe, boys caps and clothing; Miss Bulah Henley, clothing; Mrs. Dr. Elma, little girls clothing; Mrs. Meston, a large variety of clothing; Mrs. Ray Langford, box full pretty things; Mrs. Neil Turpie, box full of toys, picture books, etc; Mrs. Strahorn, shoes, magazines; Mrs. Blankenburg, outing flannel and magazines; Mr. Powell, clothing. A young lady of Sutherland sent a valise full of clothing.

When a call for help was made for a widow with five little boys, several responded at once. Mrs. Dr. McCabe, Mrs. Marti, Mrs. Ray Langford. She received clothing for herself and boys, and one dollar in cash was given by C. S. Clinton.

A box was made up and sent to a little crippled girl containing articles of clothing and toys.

Miss Sullivan, our news reporter, is also a Sunshiner, having given a variety of clothing to a worthy invalid, who wishes to thank Miss Sullivan through this column for her thoughtfulness.

A special plea was made for sheets, pillow slips, towels, and night dresses for a sick girl which was answered by Mesdames Pulver, Irving, Murphy, and Perkins.

A convalescent was made comfortable by a pair of carpet slippers given by Mrs. Kegan and other articles by Mrs. Den.

Mr. and Mrs. Mose McFarland provided cheer and practical sunshine in the way of a large cooked turkey and everything to make up a splendid dinner for a family of four. Father and mother both convalescent, and two little girls that would have known no sunshine or gladness only for their thoughtfulness.

Just now our clothes press is about empty, winter coming on, we wish every housekeeper in our city to see if there isn't something in the house which can just as well be passed on while it is yet good.

Several families have been reported to our president Mrs. Elder and baby clothes have been asked for.

We wish to speak of and thank the press for the courtesy and kindness shown in communicating to the public our notice and appeals. And also the friends who have so generously responded and helped us in any way.

MRS. MINNIE PERKINS,
Secretary.
